Mayoral Proclamation

Black History Month

- WHEREAS, during Black History Month, we reflect on the sacrifices and celebrate the many achievements and significant contributions made by African Americans to our economic, cultural, spiritual, and political development; and
- WHEREAS, Black History Month grew out of the establishment, in 1926, of Negro History Week by Dr. Carter G. Woodson who is known as the "Father of Black History Month" and the Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH); and
- WHEREAS, the 2022 national theme for observance is "Black and Health Wellness" and pays homage to medical scholars and healthcare providers throughout the African Diaspora; and
- WHEREAS, the theme is timely as we enter the third year of the COVID-19 pandemic, which has disproportionately affected minority communities and placed unique burdens on Black healthcare professionals; and
- WHEREAS, the observance of Black History Month calls our attention to the continued need to battle racism and build a society that lives up to its democratic ideals; and
- WHEREAS, African Americans locally have and continue to make substantial contributions to industries of all kinds in our region and beyond; and
- WHEREAS, African American leaders and innovators have and continue to leave an indelible imprint on our community by presenting an example of the rewards of hard work and perseverance. We honor and celebrate those contributions - past and present - throughout the month of February; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Takoma Park recognizes that racial and ethnic diversity enriches our community; and acknowledges the challenges that African Americans face in achieving equity, opportunity, and social mobility; and
- WHEREAS, Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging are priorities and we are committed to working with our community to eradicate racism in all forms to provide an inclusive, safe, resilient, and sustainable future; and

WHEREAS, the City of Takoma Park is proud to honor the history and contributions of African Americans in our community, throughout our region, state, and nation. We are determined to work towards eliminating disparities in communities of color, and creating a better future ensuring safety, trust, and belonging for all in our community;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Kate Stewart, Mayor of the City of Takoma Park, do hereby proclaim February 2022, as "Black History Month" in the City of Takoma Park, and encourage all residents this month, and throughout the year to observe, celebrate, and honor Black history and culture in our efforts to create a world that is more just, peaceful, and prosperous for all through appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities.

Proclaimed this 2nd day of February, 2022.

Kate Stewart
