3. Equipment and Supplies.

- a. The City will be responsible for procuring its own pollbooks or preparing paper registers for each precinct.
- b. This MOU does not preclude the City, the County Board, and the State Board of Elections from entering into a separate agreement regarding leasing and programming pollbooks.

The City will be responsible for procuring its own ballots, equipment and supplies. However, the County Board may, in its discretion, provide certain surplus supplies to the City.

4. Communication with Voters.

- a. Election Notices and Sample Ballots. The City shall be responsible for preparing and transmitting election notices and sample ballots for City elections. seeking information about City elections to contact the City and provide the phone number.

5. Early Voting. The City will conduct early voting separate and apart from County early voting. The City will provide information regarding early voting in City elections to the County Board for distribution at the County's early voting sites. 7. Miscellaneous.

- a. Accessible Voting. The City will responsible for providing accessible voting for City elections. This MOU does not preclude the County Board from, in its discretion, sharing information or equipment to assist the City in providing accessible voting.
- b. Spanish Language Translation. The County shall not provide Spanish language translations other than those necessary for it to conduct statewide elections in accordance with federal and State law. The City will be responsible for providing any additional Spanish language translations necessary for City elections.

8. Cooperation for the Convenience of Voters.

- a. This MOU does not preclude the City and County Board from seeking efficiencies in the preparation for and conduct of the two elections that do not violate the separation agreed to herein, do not negatively interfere with the County's polling operations or increase expenses for the County Board.

9. Term and Termination.

- a. This MOU shall continue indefinitely.

- b. Except as provided below, either party may terminate this agreement at any time, upon sixty days' written notice.
